

Case Study

Pilot Metrics with Fortune Growers

$80k

Monthly cost savings

Monitoring inspection data at border point of entry

40+

Weekly hours saved

Quality Manager coordination and tasks

1%

Waste reduction

Percentage of sales

Note on Fortune Growers: Fortune Growers is one of the largest broccoli importers in the United States, serving hundreds of customers and processing tens of thousands of orders annually. We deployed a quality agent that reviews all inspections at the border, contextualizes them against team standards and USDA standards, and escalates issues to team members and growers while updating their system as needed.